To the Members of THE

OPTIMIST CLUB our symposium for next week, Sunday, November 27, is one that should appeal to all of us. I have chosen as the title of it THE HEALTH OF OPTIMISM

There are some people, those who find it hard to see good in anything, who think that optimism is merely a fad and a vain imagining, that it has no existence, or if it has, that it is only for the faddist. As a matter of fact, optimism is coming to be recognized as a real force in American life; a force that can actually be turned into money. Only recently one of the great publicists declared: Optimism is being coined into good money; it supports thousands of people industrially; it is employed as a therapoutic agency for which thousands of wonderful cures are claimed with apparent justice; it creates great religious seets; it has only recently stilled with its magic oil the troubled waters of one of our greatest financial panics, and, in short, it has become the principle of conscious or subconacious action principle of conscious or subconscious action for millions of human beings,

And there is hardly any action of human life to which the principles and tenets of optimism do not apply. There is Horace Fletcher, who has written books about optimism in eating, and a result is setting innumerable neryous folk, who used to grumble at their daily bread, down to their meals with fine, radiant smiles that go out into the world as a force for happiness. Nor is Fletcher alone; there is Dr. Caunon, of Harvard; Chittenden, of Yale; Kellogg, of Battle Creek, who prove by actual demonstration that worry and pessimism interfere with digestion. They show that worry is killing; that fear actually creates a subtile elusive poison in the system, and that to be gloomy is a crime.

No man can do the work that is in him to do unless he has a world of optimism in his heart; the right sort of optimism which teaches us that after all not our own selfish desires, but the work liself is the first thing that should be allowed to count. As Carlyle said:

Happy, my brother? First of all, what difference is it whether thou art happy or not! To-day becomes yesterday so fast all to-merrows become yesterdays, and then there is no question whatever of the happiness, but quite another question. The only happiness a brave man ever troubles himself with asking about was happiness enough to get his work done.

How do the principles and practices of healthy optimism appeal to you, fellow-members? For the best two essays on the subject two prizes of $5 each will be awarded. Contributions should be in hand by Wednesday, November 23.

Trusting none of you will miss enjoying the page next Sunday, I Fraternally yours, THE OPTIMIST.

HILLTOP PREPS WIN

Georgetown Youngsters Defeat Army and Navy.

BIG CROWD IN ATTENDANCE

and Turner Do Loser's Best Work

The Georgetown Preps football team played the Army and Navy Preps off their feet by 15 to 6, on the 'varsity field yesterday before one of the largest crowds that have attended a Prep game. The contest was fast from the start, neither side slowing up until the final whistle biew. The Georgetown boys had the ball in the Army and Navy's territory most of the time, and only in the last period were the losers able to enter into the Hilltoppers' territory with consistency. The winners scored their points in the first periods from two touchdowns and a beautifully executed drop kick by Marum from the 20-yard line. The losers were able to slip one over on the Preps in the final period when a forward pass, Stone to Turner, sent the latter over the line for Army's only score. Golden was the star of the day, playing an excellent game both on the offense and defense. The Army and Navy's best work was done by Watson

The game opened up by Marum kicking off to Stone, who rushed the ball back 5 yards. The Georgetown boys held and forced Watson to kick to Crowley, who rushed the oval back 15 yards.

Are Held for Downs. The Hilltoppers started toward the goal line on end plays and line plunges, but when they reached the 15-yard line they were held for downs. Watson punted out of danger and again the ball was rushed back to the 15-yard line, where they lost it again on downs.

Watson punted out of danger and the ball was brought back to the 15-yard line and again they lost it on downs. Watson punted out of danger and on a fake field kick and forward pass the ball was brought to the 5-yard line from where Crowley sent Golden over for the first score of the game. Marum kicked an easy goal.

During the remainder of the period the ball was in the Army and Navy Preps territory. The Georgetown boys had the ball on the Blue and Whites' 5-yard line, but could not shove it over.

Young Collegians Score Again. The second period saw the Preps score again, when the ball was rushed from the middle of the field to the losers' 20 yard line, and they held the Preps for downs. Marum dropped back and sent the ball squarely between the uprights for the second score of the game.

The Army boys received the ball and tried to rush it back to within striking distance of their opponents' goal, but the Georgetown Preps held, and the losers were forced to punt, Watson sending the ball to Crowley, who brought i back 6 yards. On a double forward pass, Marum to Crowley to Galvin, the winners scored their second touchdown Marum kicked goal. Score: Georgetown 15; Army and Navy Preps, 0. The second period was nothing but match, and Marum had all th better of it, sending the losers back to their goal line. The fourth period saw the losers score their only on a forward pass, Stone to Turner, who ran 25 yards for a touchdown. Watson kicked an easy goal. The game ended with a ball in the losers territory.
